Congratulations on acquiring this double-sized Decktet! The Decktet is a fabulous thing from another world, a six-suited deck of cards that can be used to play dozens of different games. This set comes with a few reference and summary cards, but I've learned better than to compress the rules of whole games onto cards. For rules and more information, visit the website: www.decktet.com

The core of the Decktet, the basic deck, is 36 cards: 6 Aces, 24 number-rank cards, and 6 Crowns (+). There are also some extended deck cards: 4 Pawns ($), 4 Courts ($), and an Excuse. The extended extras are a bit like Jokers in a mundane deck of cards. Leave them out unless the rules for a game specifically say to include them.

Cards in the Decktet are distinguished by having different suits, ranks, and marks. Some cards have two or even three suits.

For example: The Savage is a rank 3 card that belongs to both the suit of Leaves and the suit of Wyrms. It has a $ mark, indicating that it is a face card.
